"Communi Consensu" Pallas holding a ribbon from which hang the Shields of France, Great Britain, Spain and Holland. Beautiful Impression, almost Proof; very scarce, 29.

I have been enabled to describe the preceding five Medals with tolerable accuracy by the aid of Mr. W. S. APPLETON'S very interesting account of the Revolutionary Peace Medals connected with the United States, which will be found in the second volume of the American Journal of Numismatics, No. 7, with a much more detailed account of these and several other of the Revolutionary Medals relating to the United States.

10 00/100

499. A beautiful impression of what has hitherto been called a Medal commemorating the Division of Carolina into two States—North and South. On one side "Glowing Arts adorn Empire; Queen Caroline watering the Palm trees; exergue—Caroline protecting, 1836." On the other side, "Both hands filled for Britain." King George as Pallas, standing amid emblems of Art, Industry, &c.; exergue—"George reigning." Silver; size 35.

In reference to this Medal, I beg to refer the Collectors to two very interesting communications in the N. Y. Journal of Numismatics, the first in Vol. II., No. 11, March, 1868, and the other in No. 9, in Vol. III, January, 1869, by which it seems now clear that it should properly be called the Jernagan Cistern Medal, and the Palm trees induce me to think that in some way it has reference to this country.

2/00/100

500. Europæ Almam Ne Tardet Pacem. (May it not delay the fair peace of Europe.) in exergue MDCCLXII. At the the right is a column, on the front of which is placed the Arms of Russia.* At the base of the Column, the Shields of Great Britain and France rest against an Anchor, the Shield of Great Britain partially covering that of France. At the left is an American Indian, in his left hand a bow and arrow, and holding in his right hand a Cupid, which is in the act of placing a Statuette of peace on the top of the column. Rev. Duret usque ad extremum. (May it endure forever) in the exergue Belg. Foed. (The Treaty of the Netherlands) in field J. G. Holtzhey, Fec. At the left, a Lion representing England facing the right, with his left forepaw resting on a bale of merchandize, and grasping with his right fore paw a pole surmounted by a Liberty Cap, near the top of which is a bunch of arrows and an olive branch. To the right is Mercury facing the left, with his left arm upraised, holding in his left hand the Caduceus and a branch of laurel, his right resting upon the Lion's head. In the right of foreground is a cornu-copiæ, a galleon and barrels; in the left foreground, bales of merchandize; in the distance the ocean covered with ships.

* This peace was brought about by the neutrality of Russia.

This Medal was evidently struck to commemorate the preliminaries of the the peace of Paris, and the end of the Seven Years' war.

By this treaty the Provinces of Nova Scotia, Cape Breton and Canada, together with the Arcadia and Louisiana to the Mississippi, were ceded to Great Britain.

U. S. CENTS.

$22.50 621. 1793 Liberty Cap, an unusually fine impression of this type; rubbed on the head, very seldom found as good; very scarce.

$12.00 622. 1793 One hundred for a Dollar round the edge; Wreath Cent, a fine impression of this variety, which is scarce and seldom found in really fine condition, a little rubbed on the head, Planchet bruised, not interfering however with the impression.

$38.00 623. 1793 Wreath Cent, usually described with Stars and Stripes, an uncirculated piece and extremely rare in this condition.

$19.00 624. 1793 Chain or Link Cent. The Obverse shows very slight marks of circulation, the reverse uncirculated; extremely rare in this condition, and a very desirable cent.

$32.50 625 1793 Another Chain Cent, finer than the preceding, in fact very nearly uncirculated, a variety—Liberty, and date being punctuated and different in other respects; rev. same as the last; very rare.

$145.00 626. 1793 Chain Cent, Ameri. The most beautiful cent of this variety ever yet offered for public competition, perfectly uncirculated; the obv. has a fine polish, the rev. beautiful. Cracked die; exceedingly rare.

$28.00 627. 1794 An extremely fine Cent, red color; uncirculated, scarce.

$6.00 628. 1794 Another slightly circulated; variety smaller date.

$25.00 629. 1795 Thick die: this is an unusually good impression of this scarce type, not much circulated; has an ugly cut on the rim of the coin.

$30 $\frac{00}{100}$ 630. 1795 Thin die, uncirculated and red color, but rather a weak impression; a very desirable piece.

$24.00 631. 1796 Liberty Cap, an unusually good cent of this type, very little rubbed on the head; still very desirable and scarce.

$20.00 632. 1796 Fillet head, uncirculated Red Cent, not often found in in this condition, scarce; die slightly cracked in the date.

$8.00 633. 1797 Uncirculated, original mint color, but slightly dimmed; a desirable piece.

$6.00 634. 1797 Another, uncirculated and a variety; nearly equal to preceding.

15.00 635. 1798 An unusually fine cent for this date, very nearly equal to above, cracked die and struck over 1797; very rare.

55.00 636. 1799 This is what is known as the Abbey Cent. Although showing marks of circulation on the face, it is considered the best cent of this date that has ever been offered at public auction.

13.00 637. 1800 This is a remarkbly fine cent for this date, it has however been polished to give it the appearance of a proof. It is one of the best impressions I have seen for a long time, and really rare to get in such a state of preservation.

13.00 638. 1801 Bright red and a beautiful impression, but showing the slightest mark of circulation; a most desirable cent.

3.00 639. 1801 $\frac{1}{0}\frac{1}{0}\frac{}{0}$ Very good for this variety; seldom found really fine.

7.00 640. 1802 About the same in condition as No. 638. Olive color; die broken on reverse.

10.00 641. 1803 A beautiful uncirculated red cent; scarce, die slightly cracked.

6.50 642. 1803 Another Olive color, a variety, nearly equal in condition and the $\frac{1}{1}\frac{1}{0}\frac{}{0}$ larger than the preceding; very scarce.

80.00 643. 1804 Perfect die. I think the finest cent ever yet offered for public competition, although it is not quite uncirculated, it will be a very desirable acquisition in any Collection.

10.00 644. 1804 Broken die, an unusualy good specimen of this variety; seldom found as good.

11.00 645. 1805 Fine impression, and by some considered a rare cent to meet with; not often found much better.

8.00 646. 1806 This would have been considered very fine for this date, but unfortunately it is corroded, and the corrosion has left small dots all over the cent.

1.00 647. 1807 Struck over 1806, poor impression, difficult to find; fine.

5.00 648. 1807 A very good cent for this date, extremely difficult to find perfectly uncirculated.

8.50 649. 1808 Very good for this date, but weak. One of the most difficult cents of the whole series to find uncirculated.

$30.00 650. 1809 Bright red, very nearly uncirculated; a desirable cent.

$11.00 651. 1810 " condition as above; seldom found as good.

$2.00 652. 1811 Struck over 1810, very good but black; scarce.

$72.50 653. 1811 Uncirculated, the finest cent of this date I have ever met with; a most desirable acquisition to a Cabinet. This cent was purchased by Mr. Leavitt of Cincinnati, at the sale of Mr. Cook's coins in Boston for $12 50. When I sold Mr. Leavitt's coins it was purchased by Mr. Lightbody, for $25, and when I sold this gentleman's collection, the present owner bought it for $45.

$8.00 654. 1812. Very fine impression, Stars on the left a little flattened, probably a defect in the die.

$11.00 655. 1813 A very fine cent, stars slightly flattened; rarely found perfectly uncirculated.

$3.50 656. 1814 A fine impression; a little circulated.

$4.00 657. 1816 Red cent, perfect die, uncirculated; very desirable.

$4.00 658. 1817 13 Stars, a beautiful bright red impression; I think as fine as any I have yet seen; purchased by the present owner as a splendid proof, and it still bears some slight marks of polish on the surface; a very desirable piece.

$1.50 659. 1817 13 Stars, Red uncirculated cent; darker color.

$2.00 660. 1817 15 Stars, very fine red cent; not quite uncirculated.

$4.00 661. 1818 Red cent uncirculated; has remains of the proof polish.

$3.00 662. 1818 Another equally fine; red color.

$1.50 663. 1818 " " slight variety.

$2.50 664. 1818 " Stars close to the date; desirable only as a variety.

$10.00 665. 1819 Struck over 1818; uncirculated and very scarce; a desirable piece.

$6.50 666. 1820 Red cent, fine but not quite uncirculated; scarce in this condition.

$22.00 667. 1821 Very fine proof; very rare.

$28.00 668. 1822 Brilliant proof; rarer than preceeding.

$10.00 669. 1823 Struck over 1822; exceedingly rare and very fine for this variety.

$28.00 670. 1824 Red and uncirculated; very rare in this condition.

$21.00 671. 1825 Truly beautiful red uncirculated cent, purchased at a very high price.

$3.50 672. 1826 Very fine cent, one or two of the stars a trifle fllattened; otherwise uncirculated.

24.00 673. 1827 Fine proof; exceedingly rare.

10.00 674. 1828 Small date red uncirculated cent; rare.

20.00 675. 1829 Beautiful bronze proof, very elegant cent; rare.

3.00 676. 1830 Red cent, fine impression; scarce; die cracked around the stars.

19.00 677. 1831 Beautiful proof; rare.

41.00 678. 1832 Fine proof; extremely rare.

$4.50 679. 1833 Red cent, die cracked all around the stars; very fine.

16.00 680. 1834 Fine proof, small date; very rare.

6.00 681. 1835 Red uncirculated cent, rare in this condition; small stars.

25.00 682. 1836 Very fine for this date, not much circulated; light red color.

12.00 683. 1837 Fine proof; very rare.

$7.00 684. 1837 A beautiful red cent; uncirculated.

$5.00 685. 1838 Bronze proof; very rare in this condition.

$4.00 686. 1838 Fine impression; red color.

$4.00 687. 1839 Booby Head, red and uncirculated; rare.

3.50 688. 1839 Head of 1840. Proof, but not equal to the other proofs; very slightly nicked, but very desirable even in this condition.

$1.00 689. 1840 Small date, red color; not uncirculated.

11.00 690. 1841 Fine proof and very rare.

$3.00 691. 1842 Small date, red cent; nearly uncirculated, seems to have been a proof.

$9.00 692. 1843 Beautiful proof; rare.

14.00 693. 1844 Very beautiful proof, and very rare.

13.00 694. 1845 " " " "

15.00 695. 1846 Brilliant proof; very rare.

HALF CENTS.

$25.00 708. 1793 A beautiful uncirculated piece, a trifling pin scratch behind the liberty cap, one of the finest I have ever had, and very rare in this condition.
$2.25 709. 1795 Plain edge but thick planchet; very fine, but not quite uncirculated.
.60 710. 1804 Very good.
$1.00 711. 1806 Bright red, and nearly perfect.
$1.00 712. 1807 Better than usually found, but not fine.
.80 713. 1809 Fine.
$1.50 714. 1810 Very fine, nearly uncirculated; seldom found as good.
$16.50 715. 1811 Not uncirculated; the best of the original die that I have seen for some years, with the exception of the one sold in the Mickley collection; a fair companion for the cent of this date in this collection. See No. 653.
$1.00 716. 1826 Fine.
.62 717. 1828 13 Stars; a very fine impression.
$1.00 718. 1829 About the same as preceding.
$15.00 719. 1831 Beautiful proof; very rare.

WASHINGTON PIECES.

0.00 733. The large Medal known as the Eccleston Medal, and the finest impression I have ever had in my possession—the dye by Webb. The following is a literal description: Bust of Washington in the centre; inscription, "General Washington—inscribed to his memory by D. Eccleston, Lancaster, MDCCCV." Rev. "He laid the foundation of American Liberty in the XVIII Century—innumerable millions yet unborn will venerate the memory of the man who obtained their Country's freedom." This inscription is in circles; in the centre, in a bolder circle, is an Indian leaning on his bow, his left hand securing the position, and in his right he is holding an arrow. Inscription, "The land was ours." Very scarce, copper, size 48.

3.00 734. "G. Washington, born Virginia, Feb. 11, 1732." Head similar to that of the Washington Half Dollar. Rev. "General of the American Armies 1775, resigned 1783, President of the United States, 1789." Copper, very nearly uncirculated, rare in this condition; slight nick on the edge of the cent, but in no way interfering with the inscription; a very desirable piece.

10.00 735. 1791 Large Eagle Washington Cent; beautiful impression.
7.00 736. 1791 Small Eagle; one of the finest I have ever had the opportunity of offering at public auction, and very scarce.

$30.00 737. 1792 Obv. "G. Washington, President I." Bust. Rev. Eagle with expanded wings, surrounded by fifteen stars—"United States of America;" in very fine condition; almost uncirculated, and very rare; copper.

$55.00 738. 1792 The same type in silver, known as the Washington Half-Dollar; condition only fair, but much rarer than the above, and very desirable in a Collection.

$4.00 739. 1792 "He is in Glory—the World in Tears." Rev. urn with G. W. in monogram; fine impression, but, as usual, has been pierced, but the hole has been stopped up; scarce.

$4.75 740. Liberty and Security. "An Asylum for the oppressed of all Nations" on the edge; uncirculated, rare in this condition; copper.

$3.00 741. Double Head Washington, in fair condition.

.75 742. 1783 Three different types, one good, the other fair.

$1.50 743. Washington, obv.; Lincoln, rev.; beautiful proof, in silver; struck at the Mint, size 13.

$1.75 744. George Washington, obv.; Martha Washington, rev.; fine proof in silver, from Idler's dies; size 14.

$1.00 745. Washington on Horseback. Rev. "Siege of Boston, 1775–6;" in copper, fine; size 20.

$1.25 746. "Pater Patriæ," 1732. Rev. "Providence left him childless," etc., in copper, very fine; Key's die; size 18.

$1.12 747. "Washington—United States of America." Head. Rev. "To the Cause of Temperance;" brass, very fine; size 16.

.75 748. Lovett's Washington, from the Series of the Presidents' Residences, in white metal, very fine; size 22.

$1.12 749. Washington, obv.; Edw. Everett, rev.; white metal, fine; size 20.

.60 750. George Washington. Head. Rev. Cogan's card. (Dies stolen); white metal, fine; size 20.

.15 751. "Pater Patriæ." Head. Sages circulating Library Card; copper, fine; size 13.

.35 752. "General Washington" Head. Spiel marke, brass, fine; three sizes.
